Teachers form a group they would collectively own to do instructional programming. School would settle own compensation. No issues of collective bargaining.

When the kids want to learn, the costs go down dramatically.

If school boards—Consortium of educational districts

Doug Thomas

7 districts: Crestville

Environmental Learning Center